REGULATIONS OF THE INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL „AKORDEONŲ ŠĖLSMAS" PASVALYS 2027

GENERAL PROVISIONS

The festival "Akordeonų šėlsmas“ Pasvalys 2027 (hereinafter referred to as the Festival) is organized by the Pasvalys Music School (Vilniaus St. 5, Pasvalys), phone: +370 451 51814, email: muzikosm@pasvalys.lt, website: www.pasvaliomm.lt. To popularize accordion music, the festival has been organized every 4 years since 2004.

AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

Aim: To foster and popularize accordion music, encourage student self-expression, promote ensemble music-making, and enrich the emotional, moral, and intellectual world.

Objectives:

- To develop stage performance skills and concert experience.
- To encourage cooperation between Lithuanian and foreign music schools.
- To expand methodological knowledge, share pedagogical experience, and deepen subject competencies.
- To continue the established tradition and help young musicians reveal their performing potential and abilities to play within an orchestra-ensemble.

GENERAL CONDITIONS

Participants: Accordion and mixed ensembles (3–5 performers) as well as orchestras from Lithuanian and foreign music and art schools. Teachers may also perform as part of the ensembles.

Repertoire: Participants freely choose and perform 1–3 pieces. The time limit per school is up to 10 minutes.

Joint Orchestra Pieces: The collective pieces for the festival's joint orchestra are Paul Lincke – March (arr. Cutt Mack) and G. Pauga – „Rylio“ (arr. J. Lapėnas).

Location and Date: April 15, 2027, at the Pasvalys Culture Center, Vytauto Didžiojo Sq. 3, Pasvalys.

Planned Festival Schedule:

12:00–13:45 – Participant registration
12:00–14:00 – Stage rehearsal time
14:00–14:40 – Rehearsal for the festival's joint orchestra
14:40–14:55 – Group photo session for all festival participants
15:00–17:30 – Festival participants' concert
17:30–17:45 – Closing of the festival and award ceremony

The rehearsal schedule will be sent out after all participant applications are received. Additional information for participating schools will be provided later.

The organizers reserve the right to: modify the schedule; distribute information related to the festival and publish photos and videos online as well as in the regional newspaper.
